

The FCC is so worry about the movie industy, and the copyrights, they seem to care more about the industy more than things that go on like this years Super Bowl. Just like here in Florida, Bubba the love sponge, the things that the FCC let him say, yes I know turn the dail and you would have to listen to it, is the general answer. I thing that CBS should be fine more than it will be, I thing a fine that will make them wake up and take notice, not a slap on the hand, or do not do it again, kind of thing. Children are watching this game, no wonder the USA is turning into the kind of country that anything is okay. I think that THE FCC HAS MORE POWER THAT JUST GIVING CBS A (oh don't do that again)

I think that the FCC is terrified that the big networks like CBS, NBC AND ABC. LETS GO AFTER THEM AND GIVE THEM BIG FINES NOT JUST A (DON'T DO THAT AGAIN)
